Again we will devote this space to a Focus On the Gems and Close-ups of the month. We feature an unusually large Books section in this month's catalog as the result of our extensive search for new items at the recent American Booksellers Association annual trade show. Not surprisingly, five of our seven Gems are books!

• Gems of the Month •

DC has recognized the fan appeal that Lobo has generated. Up to this point, Lobo has been a regular in LEGION '90 and guest-starred in many titles (including slugging it out with Superman). DC has now given LOBO his own 4 issue mini-series, to be written by Kieth Giffen and Alan Grant, with art by the popular Simon Bisley (SLAINE GRAPHIC NOVELS and DOOM PATROL covers). The first issue will be specially priced at $.99, with the next 3 issues at $1.50 each. This series does not have a mature readers label, although DC warns there will be violent events (this is Lobo after all!). LOBO will be a very hot series, appealing to a wide range of readers.

Every Calvin and Hobbes collection has sold over 1 million copies. THE AUTHORITATIVE CALVIN AND HOBBS, the newest addition to the existing 6 best-selling collections, picks up where THE ESSENTIAL CALVIN AND HOBBS left off. This large format book (8 1/2x11) collects the strips from YUKON HO! and WEIRDOS FROM ANOTHER PLANET! (including full-color Sunday cartoons) along with a full-color brand-new story. In 1989, Calvin and Hobbes was picked as "favorite comic" in more polls than any other strip. We have every reason to believe that THE AUTHORITATIVE CALVIN AND HOBBS will be another huge seller.

Before Calvin and Hobbes, Bloom County was often picked as "favorite comic". Now, CLASSICS OF WESTERN LITERATURE (BLOOM COUNTY 1986-1989) collects the very best strips in an anthology that will allow fans to relive their favorite storylines. All those fans of Steve Dallas, Bill the Cat, and Opus will want to add this retrospective "greatest hits" book to their collection!

Yet another collection is featured as a Gem this month. WEINER DOG ART is the newest Far Side book by Gary Larson. This eleventh collection in the series is in a new 8 x 8 format, "daring to be labeled square". Over 100 cartoons will be in book form for the first time, along with eight all-new color pieces done exclusively for this collection. Many copies of this new sure-to-be best-seller will join the 17 million Far Side books already in print!

X-MEN has consistently been Marvel's best-selling title for years. TSR is now releasing the MARVEL SUPER HEROES X-MEN BOXED SET, which will contain everything role-players will need to know about the many mutants in the Marvel Universe. Gamers as well as non-gamers will be interested in all the facts and data, collected in one place, about many of Marvel's most popular characters.

The Simpsons TV show is phenomenally popular, spawning a vast quantity of licensed material. THE SIMPSONS X-MAS BOOK uses art from the TV special to tell the story in 48 pages. This is the first book adapting one of the TV shows and is sure to sell to Groening's current fans as well as to new ones brought in by cover features and stories about the Simpsons in many national magazines (including Newsweek and TV Guide).

Our last Gem this month is another book which is sure to be a best-seller, both to comics/horror fans and in the mass market. FOUR PAST MIDNIGHT, the newest Stephen King novel, contains four separate stories. Many fans of King's works will be anxious to read (and own) this new 800 page hardcover.

• Close-Ups •

DARK HORSE INSIDER #15 should not be overlooked. This is NOT just a promotional tool selling Dark Horse's titles (although it does a good job of that!). Starting in this issue will be an all-new 2 page ALIENS serial that will continue through issue #28. This serial will be written by Mike Richardson and illustrated by fan favorite, Tim Vigil. None of your many ALIENS (or Vigil) fans will want to miss this one!

DAN O'NEILL'S COMICS & STORIES, from Fantagraphics, is the headline story of Hunter S. Thompson's trial. This Adults Only title gives O'Neill's first hand account of the behind-the-scenes occurrences, as he does his first comic work in years. New customers may come in to pick up this title to find another viewpoint of what happened.

That's it for a big month! Good luck with your orders.

COMING ITEMS

For New Publications Scheduled to Ship In September 1990

COMICS

Welcome to this issue of PREVIEWS! This is a "deluxe" advance catalog for comic collectors featuring previews of comics and specialty items — usually available only to your retailer! Included are many different items and coming comics as well as a detachable order form. If your store has a subscription service, this is the perfect way for you to update your monthly wants, and to let them know if you wish to purchase any special items not covered by your subscription list. Simply write in the number of copies you'd like (when ordering t-shirts please also indicate the size desired) and return the order form to your store before the deadline printed on the cover. Your retailer can then take into consideration your requests when placing their orders with distributors. Plus, you get the satisfaction of knowing, in advance, what new and exciting titles and stories will be available!

Here's an explanation of some terms and phrases used in PREVIEWS:

"GEM of the Month": These are the "Creme de la Creme", "Top Guns", the "A #1 Best-Bet Items" of the month.

"SPOTLIGHT ON": These items are also of special interest to collectors.

"CLOSE UP": These items are somewhat out of the mainstream, geared toward collectors who are searching for something different and non-traditional.

"Please Inquire": This refers to certain items that might vary in price or have limited availability. In the case of limited edition books, portfolios, and button sets, it's best to let your retailer know early that you want these items, so they can place an order for you.

OFFERED AGAIN: Simply stated, these are items that have been offered before, been released to comic stores, and are "Offered Again" for those who may have missed them the first time around.

Still Available: These are items that have come out and are offered again for sale. These items may be, however, in short supply.

RESOLICITION: All orders taken for these items have been cancelled (usually due to delayed production), new orders must be placed.

That's all there is to it! We hope PREVIEWS helps you, the fan, make better decisions on new titles, and helps make collecting comics much more fulfilling. See you next month!

ELEMENTALS #18

by Willingham, Leeke, & Chen

It's the Elementals like you've never seen them before—hot, loose, and open! This month, the series takes a dramatic new turn with "Sex, Lies, Sans Videotape", in which Fathom has her first sexual encounter with an animal, while in the second part, Bill Willingham supplies the artwork for "A Little Seduction". But who's doing the seducing here? Is it the increasingly Machiavellian Tommy...or the devious (and naked) Mary Lo? This issue will ship pre-bagged due to nudity and sexual situations.

INVADERS FROM HOME #6

by John Blair Moore

This unique mini-series comes to its conclusion as Bobbie realizes that he has accumulated some wisdom over his life of bewilderment, and goes to his favorite park bench to exchange points of view with his buddies Reggie and Y. A. Duck. Utterly confused by the meeting of minds, they visit Pop Gasket at the New Age Hardware store who explains the Butterfly Theory. The theory proposes that random minute fluctuations—much like the flutter of a butterfly's wing—set into motion chain reactions that result in big changes on a major scale. Upon returning home, Bobbie is finally at peace with himself and his life—until he sees his daughter Widget destroy a butterfly with a single smack. (RO)

Originally serialized in the pages of Prime Cuts, Ana tells of a young woman's mental, physical, and moral breakdown in the face of an oppressive military state. A randomly thrown stone lands Ana in the midst of a hellish vortex of torment, pain, and humiliation that progressively kills or alienates all those who are closest to her. Written and drawn by the Argentinian father-and-son team of Gabriel and F. Solano Lopez (the artist of Deep City), this is a harrowing and compelling examination of the human spirit and its conflict with oppression.

From the world of Judge Dredd comes that other cosmic guy with a flying surfboard and a problem with authority!

A wildly popular character from the pages of Judge Dredd, Marlon "Chopper" Shakespeare is the greatest skysurfer ever to buzz Mega-City One and go head to head with Dredd. Out of jail and on his board once again, we find Chopper down under in the land of Oz, way out in the RadBack living with an aborigine mystic called Smokie. Life is simple, the skies are open, and all's right with the world - until the news of SuperSurf 11 reaches Mr. Shakespeare. Drawn by his natural competitive spirit, and the insistence by Smokie that he follow his "Windsong", Chopper decides to enter the race. Held on the West Coast of the US in Mega-City Two, SuperSurf 11 brings in the finest skysurfers from around the world, all there to see who is really the best. But good sport turns to bloodsport, as the SuperSurf is sanctioned as a death race, with all the applicants marked as moving targets and all the Networks vying for the commercial rights. With lasercannons, napalm air missiles, and snipers hidden throughout Mega-Two, can Chopper survive the race and finish his "Windsong"? Hey mate - this a pay-per-view!

Written by John Wagner of Judge Dredd mega-fame, and soaringly illustrated by Colin MacNeil, Song of the Surfer is a 96 page race with death! A full color graphic novel, printed on heavyweight coated stock with laminated board covers. $9.95

IT'S LI'L ABNER'S FAVORITE COMIC STRIP!

FEARLESS FOSTICK

by Al Capp

He's a square-jawed, tough detective who takes a lot of punishment as he dishes out rough justice. He's underpaid and overworked, and he battles the weirdest villains in the world! No, it's not Dick Tracy, it's Fearless Fostick—Li'l Abner's "ideel"! This trade paperback reprints all of Fostick's appearances from Li'l Abner, including such stories as "The Atomic Bum", "The Case of the Poisoned Beans" and "The Chippendale Chair Case". And let's not forget Fostick's own cast of supporting characters and villains—Ratface, Anyface, Sidney the Criminal Parrot, Wildroot Cream Oil, Prudence Pimpleton (Fostick's long-suffering and patient fiancée), and many more! Introduction by current Dick Tracy writer Max Allan Collins.

ALLEY OOP VOL 1: 1946-47 DAILIES by V. T. Hamlin

As the old song goes, "There's a cat in the funny papers we all know...", his name: Alley Oop! The time travelling caveman is the creation of V.T. Hamlin, who for nearly 35 years, took his pre-historic hero on adventure after adventure with the aid of a time machine. Edited by cartoonist Frank Stack, Volume One of Alley Oop starts at the strip's beginning in 1946 and continues through 1947. This debut edition will be available in three separate versions: a regular softcover edition; a hardcover edition; and a signed and limited hardcover edition, limited to only 250 copies and signed by Alley Oop's creator, 91-year old V.T. Hamlin!

A NEW APPROACH TO HORROR COMICS

STRAND

TRIDENT COMICS

Strand follows the adventures of a bizarre group of immortal characters: Darkness, I: an Egyptian who won immortality in a game of dice with the gods; Jeremiah: the first immortal human, whose identity is a dark secret; Barney: a man who is always reincarnated, remembering all his past lives; Zakkiel: an angel shot down in a war-time dog-fight.

In their first, three-part story, they are faced with the periodic demon invasion of London. This happens every 300 years or so: the last time, 1666, brought plague and The Great Fire of London...

Strand is a horror anthology with a difference: the title strip will always lead the comic, and be the longest strip at 12 pages.

TPI COMICS

CAPTAIN CRUSADER #1

This is the story of Paul Pickardson, a mild-mannered accountant who takes abuse from all sides—his boss, his co-workers, his mother, dogs—his only solace in an otherwise hellish existence is his collection of comic books. It is his collection that gives him the idea to create a costume and fight crime—with less than spectacular results! Every panel is filled with background action and off-hand remarks and sight gags, making the reading a humorous chore!

THE ULTIMATE CONFRONTATION

SAVIOUR

THE HERO: A charming, witty, gorgeous man of almost infinite power; the world's only superhero, worshipped by everyone. They don't know he is secretly the Antichrist.

THE ANTAGONIST: A confused, powerless scruffy young man, claiming to be the Second Coming of Jesus Christ, and attempting to recruit followers to oppose the Superhero.

THE SETTING: A world where the Superhero's messages of self-interest and the goodness of wealth are readily accepted, whilst Christ's pleas for compassion for others go unheeded. Our world, now.

A story of astonishing power and imagination from some of the greatest new talents to come out of Britain in recent years: writer Mark Millar and artists Daniel Vallely and Nigel Kitching.

Now Book One, which climaxes with Christ apparently killed by the Superhero, is available in one volume. The Saviour Trade Paperback collects the first five issues of the series, as well as the prologue story from Trident #5.

THE SAVIOUR TRADE PAPERBACK ships September 11th. 128 pages plus full color cover by Daniel Vallely. $7.95 US, &9.95 Canada, £3.95 UK.

BOOKS

It's ABA (American Booksellers Association) time once again, and we've been hard at work collecting data on the newest releases from the major publishers as well as small press publishers from around the world. We have a wide selection of books from all genres, including comics, movies, fantasy, science fiction, and horror. We have a partial offering of ABA findings for this month. The rest will be offered in the next issue of Previews.

A NOTE TO OUR READERS: We cannot guarantee timely delivery of books produced by publishers or manufacturers working outside of the direct market. In some cases, the book trade may take first delivery, or vice versa. We appreciate your understanding and patience in these matters. Most of the titles listed in this section will be shipping from late August to November. If any books are scheduled to ship at a later date, we will note this in the listing.

SWORDS AGAINST WIZARDRY

by Fritz Leiber

This fourth classic Fafhrd and the Gray Mouser adventure takes the intrepid pair on a dangerous quest to the "unscalable" peak of Mount Stardock, in search of a fabled treasure rumored to exist there—reportedly guarded by demons and gods! Then, they set off for another adventure in the terror-filled kingdom of Quarmall. Sorcery and intrigue mix only too well there, and our two heroes quickly learn that the end of a quest lies not in treasure, but in treachery! (Ace—79194-8)

HORROR

GEM OF THE MONTH

FOUR PAST MIDNIGHT

by Stephen King

The king of horror is back with a chilling selection of four novellas, including:

"The Langoliers" in which a plane full of commuters on the red eye from L.A. to Boston meet with terror—and land in a dead world where something's waiting for them!

"Secret Window, Secret Garden" in which a lonely and depressed, recently divorced man, finds that his lakeside retreat is less than secluded when a stranger appears, pointing an accusing finger.

"The Library Policeman" wherein a statement from King's childhood (about returning library books on time—or else!) sets the stage for a bizarre tale as the bizarre, Library Policemen, come looking for a long overdue book...

"The Sun Dog" in which a young man's camera continues to capture the image of a hellish dog that isn't—shouldn't—be there, yet draws inexplicably closer with every picture he takes!

It's total King, just the way his millions of fans like it! (Viking—0-670-83538-2)

LOVECRAFT'S LEGACY

edited by Weinberg & Greenberg

H. P. Lovecraft (1890-1937) was America's Grand Master of the weird tale. Through such tales as "The Lurking Fear", "At the Mountains of Madness", and "The Dunwich Horror", he created a lasting mythos of outer gods and unspeakable beings from our world's primordial past. In celebration of the 100th anniversary of the birth of this legend of horror, Robert E. Weinberg and Martin H. Greenberg have assembled an all-star collection of strange tales in the Lovecraftian vein. Contributors include Hugh B. Cave, Ray Garton, Brian Lumley, Graham Masterton, F. Paul Wilson, and Gene Wolfe. Introduction by Lovecraft's friend and correspondent, Robert Bloch. (Tor—0-312-85091-3)

THE WITCHING HOUR

by Anne Rice

From the author of The Vampire Chronicles comes this new novel of witchcraft and the occult through four centuries. It begins with a disaster at sea, off the California coast. When a brilliant neurosurgeon rescues a drowned man from the surf, she not only unlocks the doorway to her own magical powers but those of the man she brings back to life. As the pair attempts to discover the sources of their own newfound gifts, the settings move forward and backward in time—from today's San Francisco and New Orleans, to 17th century France. A complex, and compellingly realized family saga of witchcraft through the ages! (Knopf-0-394-58786-3)

OPERA ADAPTATIONS

AIDA

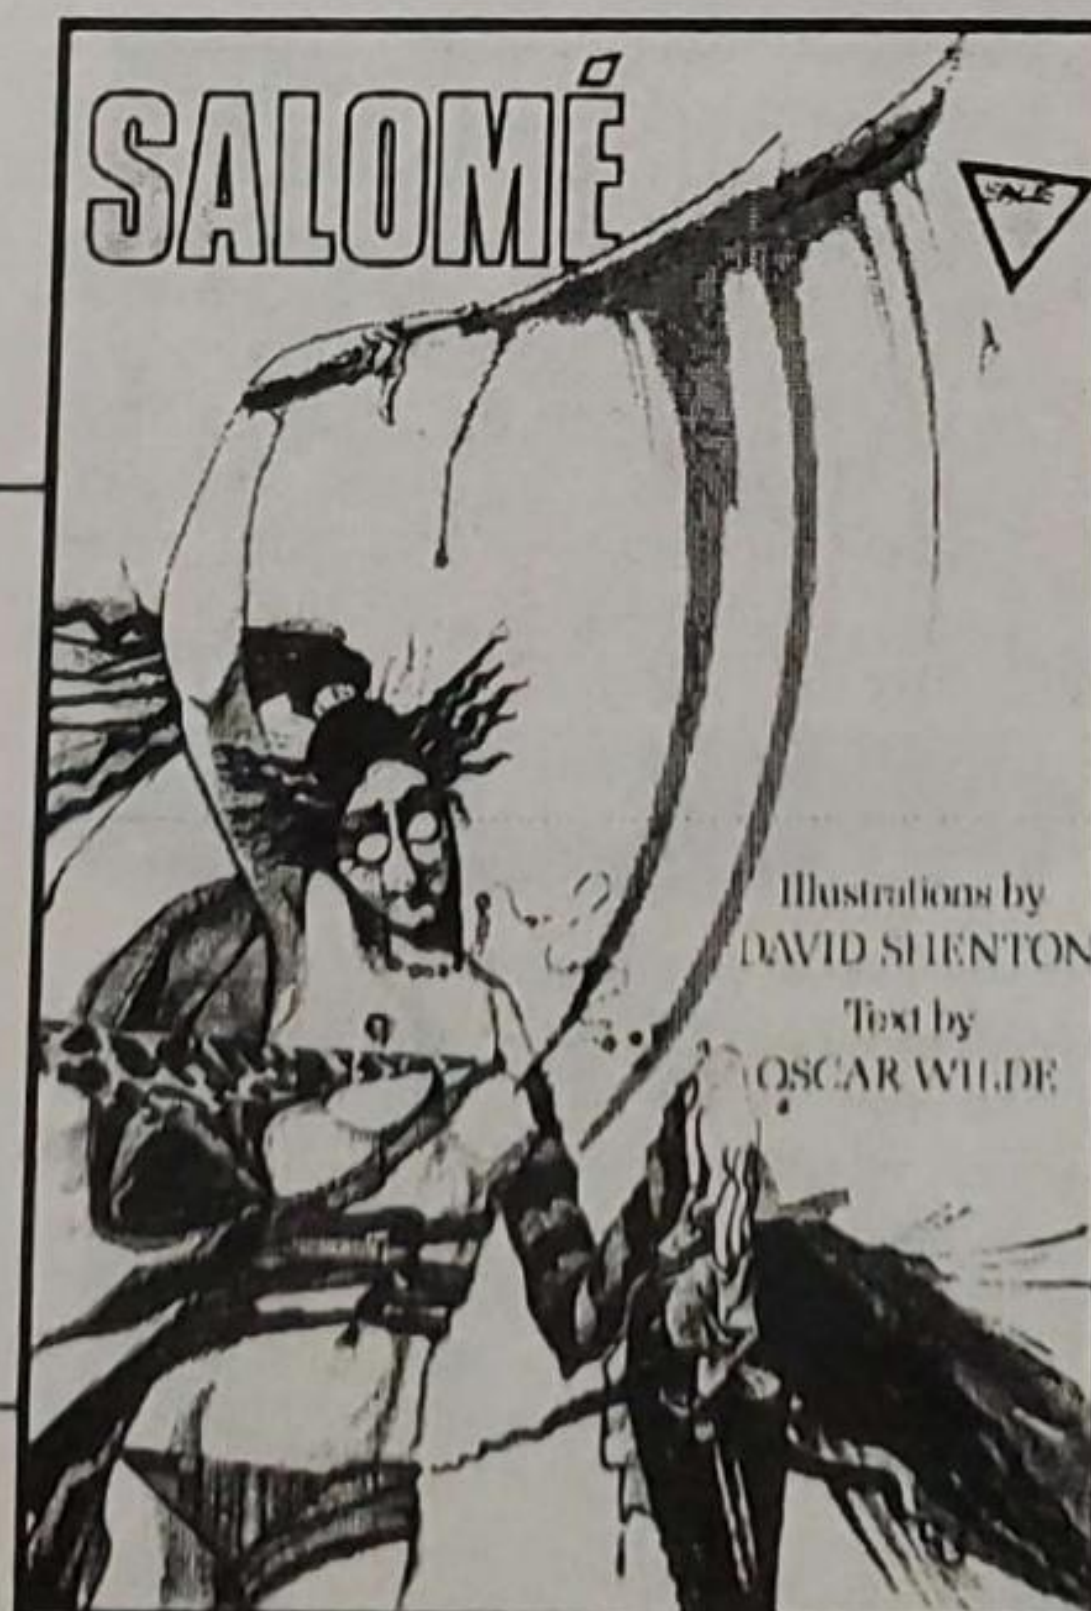

by Leontyne Price

Leo and Diane Dillon beautifully illustrate opera "prima donna assoluta" Leontyne Price's retelling of the famous Verdi opera, Aida. During a bitter war between Ethiopia and Egypt, the Princess Aida, the lovely daughter of the Ethiopian king, is captured and taken to Egypt to become a slave to an Egyptain princess. This is the point at which Verdi's opera opens, and Aida falls in love with Radames, the leader of the Egyptian army. But when her father is also taken by the Egyptian army, Aida must choose between the life of her father and the man she loves. For opera buffs or fans of P.Craig Russell's critically acclaimed opera adaptations, this should be a welcome companion volume. (Harcourt/Brace/Jovanovich—0-15-200405-X)

SCIENCE FICTION

FORBIDDEN PLANET

by W. J. Stuart

This is the novel that the classic 1956 SF film was based upon. It is the year 2371 A.D., and Commander J. J. Adams and the crew of the United Planets cruiser C-57-D have been sent to the distant planet, Altair-4, to check for survivors of the missing Bellerophon expedition. They soon meet the sole survivor of the mission, Dr. Edward Morbius, his beautiful daughter, and their robot servant. Morbius has no intention of being "rescued", and Commander Adams soon discovers that all is not as it seems on Altair-4! The novel is superior in many ways to the film, with a greater attention to characterization and plot details. (Farrar, Straus, Giroux—0-374-42445-4)

MAN AFTER MAN: AN ANTHROPOLOGY OF THE FUTURE

by Dougal Dixon

More a work of science speculation than fiction, the author of After Man: A Zoology of the Future and The New Dinosaurs: An Alternative Evolution brings us his most intriguing work to date—a look at the possibilities of mankind's future evolution? Man After Man offers a sweeping vision, wondrous of the new evolution, as technology and the forces of nature join with mankind's own will to give history a new direction. Tracing our descendants as they move from the surface of our increasingly hostile world to habitats under the sea, and to the stars and beyond, Dixon gives us his view of what our future generations might become. Featuring 28 color plates and 50 b&w illustrations. (SMP—0-312-03560-8)

RETIEF & THE PANGALACTIC PAGEANT OF PULCHRITUDE

by Keith Laumer

This time out, Retief is assigned to what seems to be a simple enough task: to escort Earth's voluptuous entrant to a galactic beauty pageant on the planet Boondock, where the most beautiful females of every inhabited planet in the galaxy have gathered to earn acclaim. But Retief learns that the Groaci plan to kidnap all of the contestants and blame it on the Earth! While the CDT's normal response would be a stern note of protest, this time the Groaci are going to have to learn things the hard way that—even though Retief has somehow been classified as a contestant—he is not just another pretty face! Also included is a second full-length novel Retief's Ransom. Cover by Duane Barlowe. (Baen—0-671-65556-6)

STAR WRECK: THE GENERATION GAP

by Leah Rewolinski

Captain James T. Smirk, Starfreak Command's elder statesman, back in action after an 80-year retirement with his old crew, "the galaxy's original, well-balanced, multi-ethnic, equal opportunity team".

Captain Jean-Lucy Ricardo and his "next generation" crew have enough trouble trying to defeat the menace of the Cellulites—the galaxy's biggest, baddest, most obese aliens—without having to put up with a bunch of over-the-hill space geezers! Can the combined forces of both USS Endocrine crews defeat the Cellulites? Will romance bloom between Captain Smirk and Counselor Dee-Troit? Will child prodigy and cosmic Twinkie addict, Westerley Flusher, save the day—again? A completely unauthorized parody of two of America's best-loved SF TV series! (SMP—0-312-92359-7)

TOYS & NOVELTIES

HORIZON HOBBIES

This month we begin offering a great series of wind-up/battery operated robot toys from Japan—The Zoids. The Zoids made a brief appearance on the American toy market in the early '80s and then disappeared from the toy store shelves. But in Japan, they have thrived to this day, with new designs released every year! Each Zoid model can be assembled in minutes and needs no glue or paint to finish (although spectacular effects, and an air of realism can be had with a good paint job!).

ZOID IRONKONG MK-II

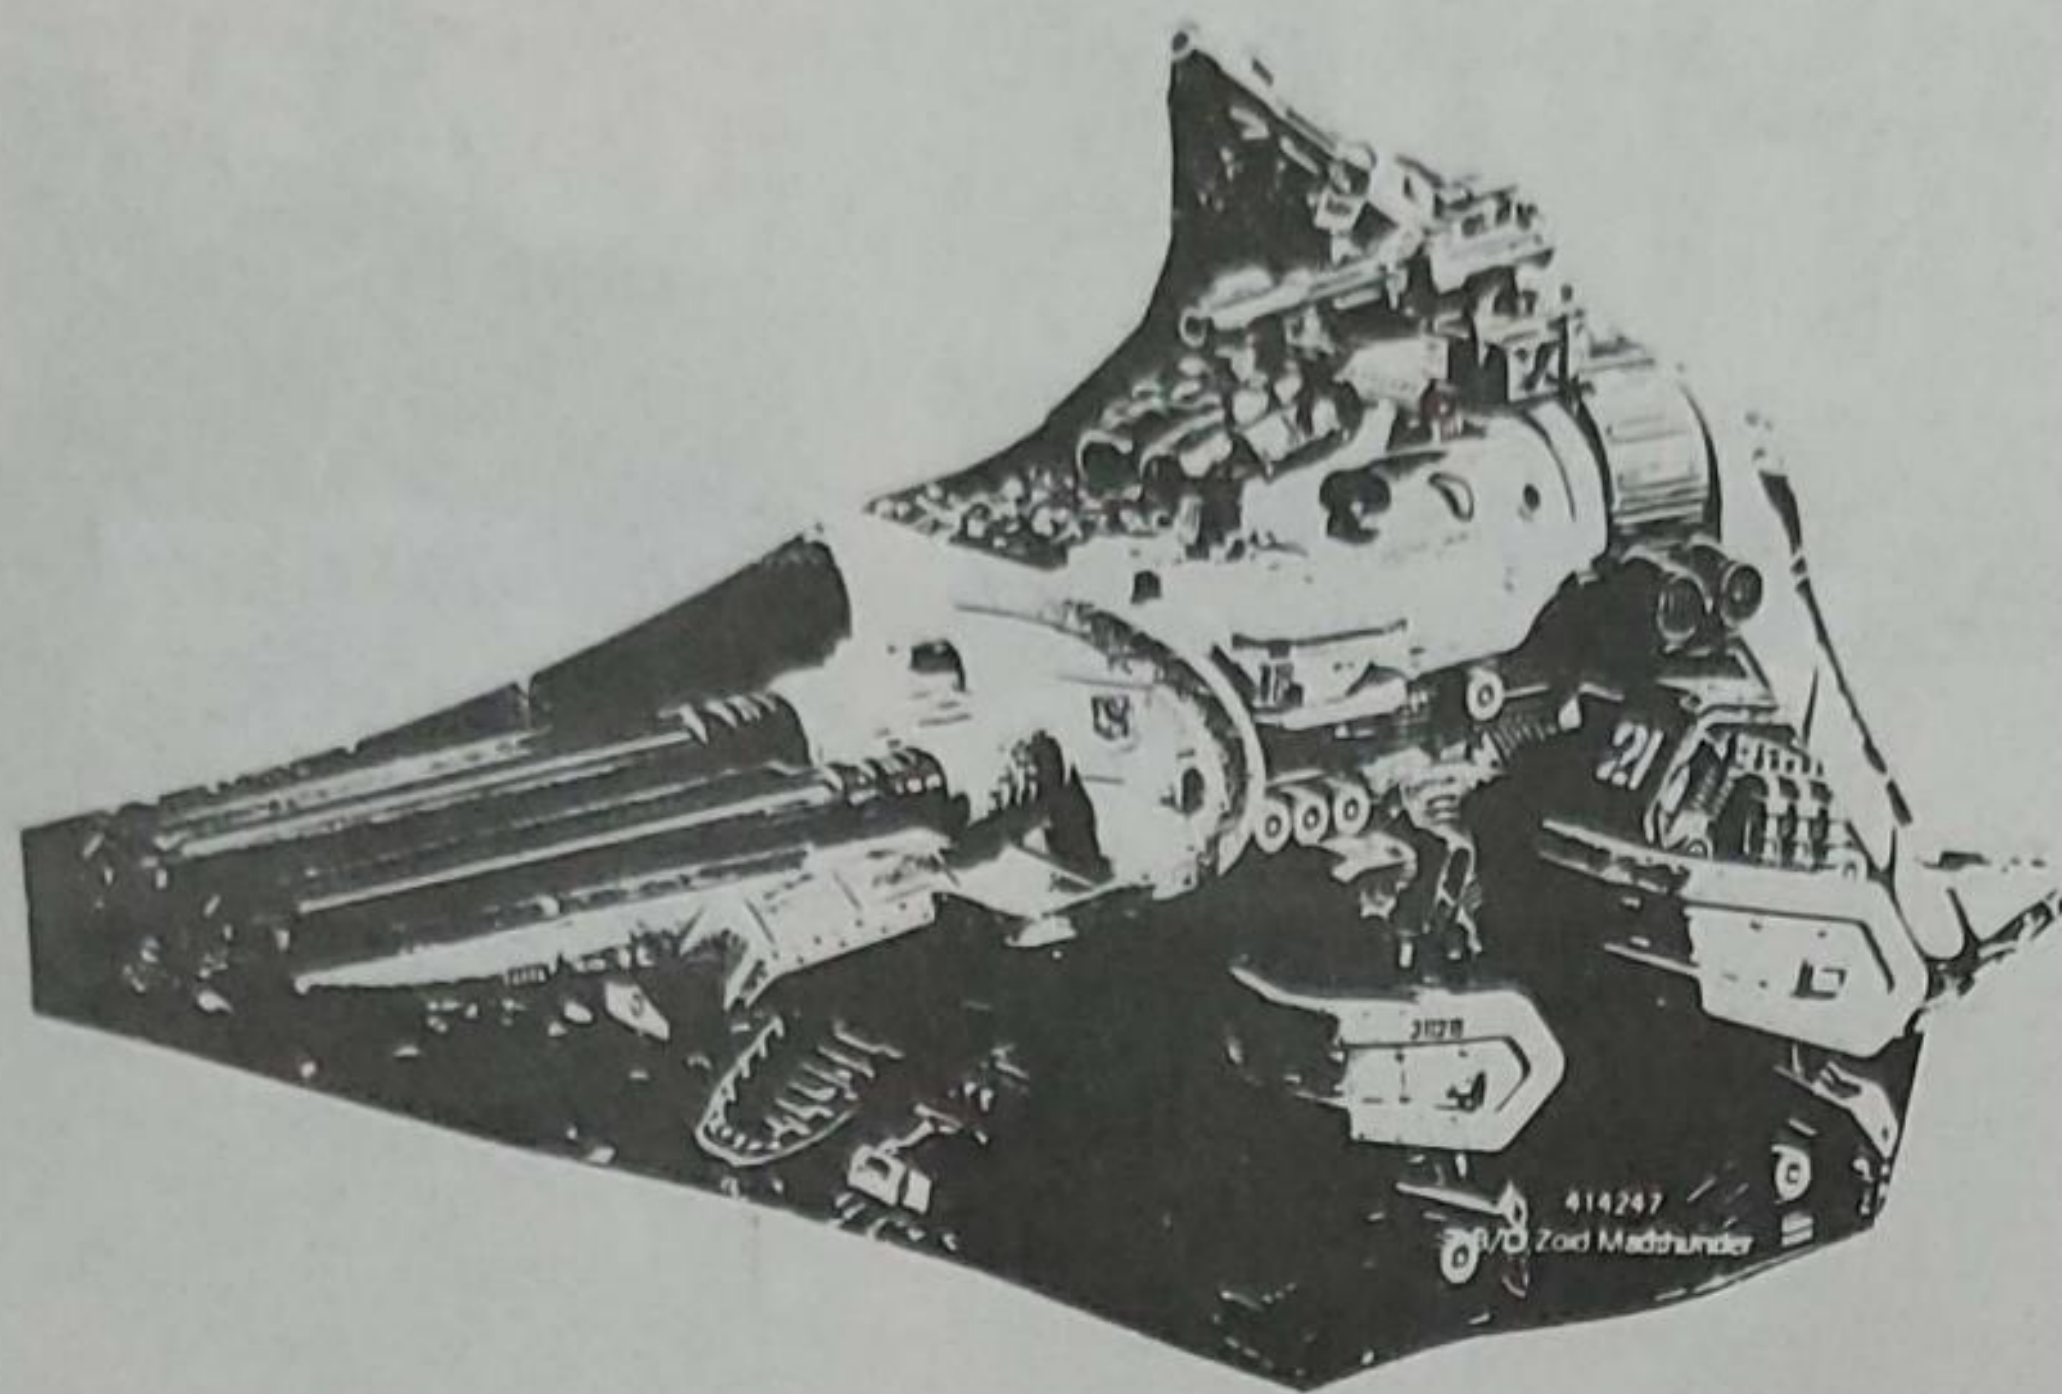

Just as Godzilla faced King Kong in the movies, you can pit the Zoids version of Kong against Gojulas, or any other model, with this "MK-II" version of Ironkong (replacing an earlier version). This 10" long model features moving jointed arms and legs, head, and more. Includes snap-on guns, pilots and accessories, and a working, shoulder-mounted missile launcher. Battery-operated. Boxed Please Inquire

ZOID GOJULAS MK-II

Imagine Godzilla as a shambling leviathan of robotic destruction and you'll get a pretty good idea what this model's all about! Measuring 17" long from head to tail-gun, this "MK-II" version of Gojulas (replacing an earlier version) features moving arms, legs, and head, along with glowing red eyes. Includes snap-on guns, pilots, and accessories. Battery-operated. Boxed Please Inquire

ADDITIONAL COMING ITEMS

ZOID MADTHUNDER

This 23" long robotic triceratops comes loaded down for battle, and is bristling with weaponry like rotating/elevating guns, and long horns! Features opening/closing jaws, moving jointed legs, armor plating, decals, and more! A battery-operated juggernaut!

ABBOTT & COSTELLO MEET THE LICENSING ZONE

The summer months are nearly over, and the Simpsons, RoboCop, Dick Tracy, and the rest have left their marks on the public—enduring and otherwise! Once again, it's time to journey into that special realm we like to call "The Licensing Zone", where products based on current and popular characters are listed. As with previous "Zones", we have another fine (if lean) assortment of merchandise for Dick Tracy, The Simpsons, TMNT, Gremlins, Batman, and others. As previously noted, we will often not receive goods on a timely basis, with major chains and department stores receiving merchandise before we do. We cannot guarantee timely delivery of products produced or manufactured outside of the Direct Market.

BATMAN/DC HEROES

Kenner is back in the DC hero market with their new Batman: The Dark Knight toy line. This action figure line features the original Super Powers Batman figure revamped for the '90s with an array of new and innovative "bat weaponry". These new Batman toys promise to be very hot!

TURBOJET BATWING VEHICLE

This great version of the Batwing can be three-vehicles-in-one! First there is the Batwing mode, with twin missile launchers (removable) and an opening canopy. Next, remove the wings and attach the included wheels to the fuselage for a sleek street racer, then snap the wings of the Batwing together to form a one-man glider! (Kenner)

CATALAN

ADELE AND THE BEAST

(The Most Extraordinary Adventures of Adele Blanc-Sec Vol 1)

by Jacques Tardi

Set at the turn of the century, the Adele series mixes elements of Agatha Christie and the fantastically bizarre into a humorous series by one of Europe's grand masters! In this first story, a pterodactyl egg has hatched at the Museum of Natural History—however there are reports of two pterodactyls attacking people! As seen in Dark Horse's Cheval Noir. (NBM)

CARL BARKS LIBRARY Vol. 6

This big edition spotlights the Donald Duck family, reprinting stories like "Maharajah Donald" and "Darkest Africa" from giveaway editions; all of Barks' stories from the Dell annuals and specials; all of Barks' Duck family one-shot stories featuring Gyro, Grandma, and Daisy Duck; all of Barks' Junior Woodchuck stories, most reproduced directly from his original pencil layouts; plus so much more! This edition is virtually bulging with Barks material, and is the largest set of the series featuring over 800 pages of material in three, 9x12 hardcover editions. The slipcase art is that of an alternate cover for a 1960 Donald Duck Album. This is truly the biggest "Barks" ever! (Another Rainbow)

ERMA JAGUAR

by Alex Varenne

This series features the nocturnal dreamings of Erma Jaguar. Filled with erotic imagery and off-the-wall action, Erma's dreams run from an illicit rendezvous at a rest stop, to being the "main course" at a sumptuous Roman party. Varenne is one of France's finest illustrators, and working in his unique black & white painting style, evokes the complexity and depth of texture usually only found in color works.
